I confirm that I have dealt with Daniel Bohusz in 2011 in his capacity of programmer working for one of our suppliers. During this period Daniel was directly engaged in a number of projects 4CM commissioned consisting of creating specialist B2B web sites. Daniel has always provided us with timely and excellent support in the areas of website engineering, site optimisation, search engine analysis and site submission. His work has been a major factor in our projects' success.

I can confidently recommend Daniel as a professional and reliable expert in his field.

Yours faithfully
